

TEN TYPHOID FEVER VICTIMS IN FAMILY

Father Alone Thus Far Only One to Escape Dread Malady.

Within a week three children of Mr. and Mrs. John Neels, of No. 185 Fifth street, Jersey City, have died in Christ Hospital from typhoid fever. Seven other members of the family, including Mrs. Neels, remain in the hospital, victims of the fever, which all contracted three weeks ago, the father alone escaping.

Because of the danger of infection if he visits his wife or children in the hospital, Neels's employers insist that he must remain aloof from them under penalty of dismissal. Because of this the third of his children to succumb will be buried to-day without the attendance of the father.

When his family was first stricken Neels endeavored to provide from his hard-earned savings for the emergency that the sufferers might receive private medical attention, but it was soon gone as member after member was stricken, so that the charity of the county had to be asked and the ten patients were taken to Christ Hospital.

A week ago to-day little Michael, five years of age, died; Jennie, the baby, two years, was the next to be carried off, and to-day Constance, twelve years old, died.

The Postmaster was notified by Dr. Dickinson, President of the Christ Hospital Association, of the pathetic story of the family's affliction and poverty, when arrangements were made to have the county defray the cost of the third of the Neels children's funerals.

There may be additional funerals, for several of the other six stricken children are declared to have little chance of recovery.

Dr. Burdette V. Craig, of the Boulevard and Highland avenue, has co-operated with Dr. Dickinson in the endeavor to raise funds for delicacies not provided by the hospital.

The Neels family, with its three lost members, comprised besides Neels, his wife, Virginia, forty-three; Anna, twenty-one; Joseph, fourteen; Philip, thirteen; Constance, twelve; Mary, nine; Florence, eight; Phoebe, six; Michael, five, and Jennie, two years.

How the disease spread among the family has not been discovered by the health authorities.

THOUGHT CALVE WAS UNDER ARREST.

Opera Singer Crossed Golf Links in Carriage and Mixed English Made Trouble.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 20.—(Mme. Calve with Mme. Rouman, wife of the basso soloist, was driving yesterday to the Country Club. They spoke French, and were not known at the club. They alighted, however, and when Mme. Calve suggested that they go to a farmhouse for fresh milk her companion stepped forward.

The woman stepped across the golf links toward the farmhouse, telling their driver to follow. Custodian Graves stepped him and compelled the man to drive back to the club-house. He was detained until Mme. Calve and her companion came back. This delay made Mme. Calve miss an engagement in town.

She telephoned her regrets and explained her absence, but her English was so faulty that the hotel people thought she had been arrested for trespass. This created excitement until explanations were made.

Waists You Will Admire—and Buy.

Style and Quality That Cannot Be Matched Under $1.75, for 98c

There never were so many really charming Waists shown so early in the season as you will find here on the second floor. We have searched far and wide for styles you would approve at prices you would gladly pay, and wherever we found beauty and economy combined we bought. For example, look at these Waists of white lawn which we are selling for 98c.—yoke of Valenciennes lace and edging, panel of embroidery through body of blouse, deep cuffs of twelve tucks and hemstitching, and side-plaited back—we are quite positive they are not to be duplicated anywhere else for less than $1.75. You can easily settle that question by shopping around, the same as we have done.

$1.98, value $2.75—Batiste blouse; entire yoke of lace back and front with three heavy embroidered batiste panels with lace insertions, deep cuff with Val. lace insertions and button back.

$1.98, value $2.50—White China silk; round lace yoke and lawn embroidered panel with lace insertion; tucked and button back; short and long sleeves.

$3.98, value $5—White batiste; umbrella yoke of Val. lace insertion with lace collar attached; two rows of lace through body of waist and short sleeves with lace cuff.

$2.98, value $3.50—Persian lawn, with German Val. lace trimmed yoke, panel of embroidery and lace insertion, tucked collar with lace edge attached, and short sleeves with inserted cuff of dainty lace.

Men's Socks, 9c a pair.

To clean up the odd lots that are bound to accumulate in a large stock of men's half hose, you will find in this lot fancy and plain colors in fine thread and cotton, some heavy and light weight woolen socks. No sell price in all kinds.

Misses' Coats, $5.98

Value $10.00.

Made of mannish mixtures, handsome as can be, and enduringly good for wear.

Three-quarter double breasted (Spring style), fully boxy style, with velvet collar.

Don't think because the price is only $5.98 the coat isn't well tailored. Remember, please, it is a TEN DOLLAR Coat we are talking about, although we did manage to buy sixty to sell for half.

Misses' Suits, $12.75.

Value $16.00.

Pony Coat Suits—made with such care and dash and style that we wonder how any one can resist them.

Of all-wool mixtures, made with tailored straps and finished with fancy braid. The Coat is lined with satin. Latest model, circular skirt. Wonderful fully attractive suits.

Women's $25 Coats for $10.75.

What luck you are in! Another lot—about fifty—of those coats we told you of yesterday just reached us to-day. Belated arrivals—overlooked in shipping—or you wouldn't have another chance at them. Look at the picture, it shows the style; could you ask for a more fashionable coat than that? The material is a good black broadcloth, well tailored and beautifully lined with black or gray heavy satin. Yes, there are all sizes when the store doors open to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock—how long depends upon the number of knowing women who appreciate a bargain.

Spring Coats are arriving almost hourly—marvels of beauty and economy, $5.95 to $24—fresh, bright, full of suggestion; new in style and in material and worth a second consideration.

Misses' Skirts, $4.98.

Value $8.00.

Samples—styles that the makers say will be most popular. Of all-wool Broadcloth, Panama, Sicilians, novelty mixtures. Some circular, some side plaited, some box-plait effect.

This is a great chance for little women—we can fit any little woman who will give us a chance.

Children's Dresses, $1.75

Value $3.00.

Dresses for early Spring. Made of all-wool material. All sorts of styles—good styles.

Sailor, Russian and Suspender Dresses. Many finished with taffeta braid, embroidered trimming.

All sizes 6 to 14 years. These dresses embrace all the samples of a very well known maker—styles that will make young eyes twinkle with delight and please those who buy.

FURS—Hurry or You'll be too Late! Stock Greenberg & Sokolower Below Cost.

Not much time to stop and think—furs are selling almost twice as fast as in December and January, and those we tell of to-day for to-morrow's selling are pretty sure to belong to new owners before Thursday. Every piece you buy now will be twice perhaps three times as much next winter.

Rough Pongee Silk Suiting.

Similar to that selling elsewhere for $1.25.

55c

We can't get it too fast. Sold four hundred pieces Monday one week ago—and yesterday did it again. A thousand pieces reached us last night just in time to be talked about to-day. So you can pick from a fresh lot to-morrow. A quality that stands alone unless you place it alongside of the $1.25 Rough Pongee Suiting shown around town, and then it is right up with the best. There is not in this city a more complete collection of colors:

Alice Blue, Reseda, Navy, Old Rose, Pink, Ciel, Brown, Champagne, Natural, White, Ivory, Cream, Black.

Width 27 inches—please make a note of that, for some of the Rough Pongee Suiting so loudly noised about is only 24 inches wide. We'd like nothing better than to have you ask us for samples to take with you to make comparisons. If you will only do that we KNOW where you will buy.

Thursday we celebrate the birthday of the Father of Our Country, and To-morrow, Wednesday, we will properly clothe a few thousand New Yorkers at the lowest prices ever named for like values. For instance:
